MAKING LIFE SWEETER FOR 45 years

Eli's Cheesecake is a Chicago-born, third-generation, family-owned bakery devoted to hand-crafting the best cheesecake in the world.

In 1980, Eli Schulman declared cheesecake to be the signature dessert at his legendary restaurant Eli's The Place For Steak. It was there that he dreamed up a new way to make cheesecake... Chicago-style, known for its beautiful caramelization, creamy texture, and shortbread cookie crust. Alongside Eli's Original cheesecake, our pastry chefs create more than 50 different kinds of sweet treats handmade with top notch ingredients, like custom slow-cultured cream cheese and Nielsen-Massey Madagascar Vanilla.

Forty-five years later, we continue to spread joy through our delicious desserts and work to give back to the community that built us. To mark our 45th anniversary, let's follow Eli's golden rules... "Charity will never bust you," and "Treat others as if you were the other."

Let's make life sweeter together!

Like Father, Like Son, Like Daughter

CHEESECAKE SUNDAE

Eli's Cheesecake Sundae 2.0...a fan favorite brought back from the archives for Eli's 45th Anniversary. A rich chocolate cheesecake with "scoops" of strawberry and banana cheesecake inside, topped with chocolate ganache, whipped cream, sprinkles, and a Cesarin Amarena Cherry, all baked on Eli's signature chocolate shortbread cookie crust.

Pawpaw Festival Paw Paw, Illinois

PAWPAW CHEESECAKE

When Kipp Lykins and Jane Fox of Paw Paw Farms Inc. (one of the largest pawpaw groves in Illinois) decided that cheesecake and pawpaw would make a great combination, they turned to Eli's. Pawpaw, a fruit indigenous to the U.S., has a custardy texture and a flavor that's a cross between a banana and a mango. This delicious dessert was such a hit at the Illinois Pawpaw Festival, we made more for you to try!

Pawpaw and brown sugar cheesecake batter is topped with pawpaw gelee, finished with a traditional sour cream topping, and baked on our signature all-butter shortbread cookie crust.

$63 9", 2 lb. 14 oz. Pre-cut, Serves 14
